Roles and Responsibilities	Additional Skills/Certification
A Roustabout plays a crucial role in the smooth and safe functioning of offshore and onshore oil and gas operations. Although it is an entry-level position, the responsibilities are significant and demand physical strength, teamwork, and strict attention to safety. Roustabouts support the drill crew, assist in material handling, help crane operations, maintain equipment, and keep the worksite clean and hazard-free. Through daily hands-on experience, they learn essential rig procedures, safety protocols, and equipment handling skills that prepare them for more advanced positions such as Floorman, Roughneck, and eventually Derrickman or Driller. The role builds discipline, resilience, and technical understanding of rig operations. Overall, a Roustabout is a foundational member of the crew whose hard work directly contributes to efficient drilling activities and the safety of everyone on the rig, making it an important starting point for a successful oilfield career	Bosiet and h2s
