“My name is Adib Hamdi, and I’m a QHSSE professional with over 24 years of experience in the oil and gas industry, working extensively across North and East Africa and the Middle East. I currently serve as a Senior Expert HSSE Advisor at OMV in Tunisia. My background spans drilling, workover, rigless operations, and civil projects, with hands-on leadership in HSE strategy, auditing, incident investigation, and workforce training. I’ve held senior roles in multiple countries including Algeria, Libya, Yemen, Kenya, and Egypt, managing cross-cultural teams and aligning site operations with both local and international safety standards. I’m NEBOSH and OSHA certified, with specialized training in Process Safety, H2S management, emergency response, lifting operations, and incident investigation, recently got my Nebosh Diploma. I’m passionate about embedding a strong safety culture and bringing practical, field-tested solutions to HSE challenges. I’m also flexible and open to relocation. My goal is always to add value through proactive risk management and operational excellence.”	Nebosh Diploma
