Additional Information

Roles and Responsibilities	Additional Skills/Certification
-----------------------------------	--

As a Petroleum Intern, I applied HSE standards in field operations and risk assessment, gaining exposure to production operations and process handling. I contributed to maintaining compliance with company and regulatory guidelines, collaborated with team members to troubleshoot operational issues, and familiarized myself with instrumentation and control systems. This hands-on experience enhanced my understanding of field operations, risk management, and safety adherence. I gained practical experience in monitoring production data, observing operations, and handling equipment, applying theoretical knowledge in real-world scenarios and developing technical skills. Working in diverse settings, I enhanced my problem-solving abilities and learned to adapt to dynamic environments. I effectively contributed to team objectives by supporting operational tasks and ensuring safety protocols were followed diligently. My role involved observing industry best practices, understanding operational workflows, and applying engineering principles to practical situations. This experience strengthened my technical expertise and prepared me for a career in the oil and gas sector, equipping me with the skills needed to excel in a fast-paced and evolving industry.
