Hello, I am a drilling engineer and I hope to find a place with you to continue my career as a company man. I would be grateful to you and I promise to do my best and develop myself to serve you. I eagerly await your support, since entering the field of oil exploration, I have learned a number of things, including learning the basics of working in a safe and effective way, adapting and communicating with the team, preserving the environment, work equipments and human element, transferring the experiences gained to the other workers and the opportunity to progress in the job. I worked in several positions, from a roustabout worker to an assistant drilling. Hello, I am a drilling engineer and I hope to find a place with you to continue my career as a company man.
