Drilling engineer with 12 years experience with HPHT offshore and onshore wells covering both well planning and drilling operations. I worked with ExxonMobil, Equinor and Eni through joint venture companies in the Russia. Since 2019 worked with Lukoil international supporting offshore wells in Caspian, Golf of Mexico and Black Sea. Since 2022 I have been working for Fieldwood Energy based in Mexico supporting drilling operations with HPHT offshore wells with Jack-up rigs. Throughout my career I have been involved in offshore exploration and development wells using semisubmersible and jack-up rigs, including HPHT and H2S wells. This required a strong focus on risk management, well integrity, and operational discipline. In my roles, I acted as the key interface between well planning, operations, contractors, and HSE, supporting the full well lifecycle from concept and well design through tendering, DWOPs, pre-spud meetings, and execution. I worked closely with drilling superintendents and company men, providing real-time engineering support, preparing POAs and look-ahead plans, and driving NPT reduction and continuous improvement. I also have strong experience with Landmark for well planning, reporting, and engineering checks.

IWCF well control Level 4 (supervisor subsea and surface) Landmark software certificates (Well plan, StressCheck, WellCost, WellCat, OpenWells, Compass)
