Additional Information

Roles and Responsibilities	Additional Skills/Certification
-----------------------------------	--

Mud Logger / Senior Mudlogger Conduct real-time monitoring of drilling parameters (ROP, WOB, RPM, torque, pump pressure) to ensure safe and efficient drilling operations Perform lithological analysis and description of cuttings to identify formation changes and reservoir characteristics Monitor and interpret gas data (Total Gas, C1–C5) to detect hydrocarbon shows and evaluate formation productivity Identify and report drilling anomalies such as kicks, losses, and abnormal pressure trends Calculate and maintain accurate lag time and depth correlation for precise sample tracking Operate and maintain mud logging systems (ANAX, Well Wizard Server) ensuring data accuracy and quality control Prepare and deliver detailed daily drilling reports and specialized logs (Master Log, Composite Log, Hydrocarbon Log) Conduct fluorescence and cut analysis to confirm hydrocarbon presence Collaborate closely with drilling engineers, geologists, and rig crew to support operational decisions Ensure compliance with HSE standards and well control procedures during all drilling activities Support formation evaluation and wellsite geological interpretation using real-time data Maintain continuous communication with clients, providing timely updates and technical recommendations

Certifications & Technical Training
 Reservoir Geomechanics – Stanford Online (2015) Focus: in-situ stress, rock mechanics, wellbore stability, and drilling optimization
 Basic Mud Logging Training – Petroservices, Yemen (2009) Focus: gas detection, sample analysis, drilling monitoring, reporting standards
 GIS Training (ArcGIS 9.2) – Yarmouk University, Jordan (2007) Focus: spatial data analysis, geological mapping, remote sensing basics
